Part 1 - Understanding this Report

Introduction

This Selection Report describes John Johnson's suitability for the Customer Service Representative position at Prevue HR Systems. The information in this report comes first from reviewing the scores on each of the scales of the Prevue Assessments that were completed by John Johnson and second from comparing those scores to the Prevue Benchmark for the position. Both the scores on the Prevue Assessments and the comparison of those scores to the Prevue Benchmark are exhibited graphically in the Prevue Results Graph in Part 2.

Prevue Assessments

The Prevue Results Graph shows John Johnson's 'sten' score on each of the Prevue Assessments scales considered in the report. A sten score is a candidate's score on a normal bell-shaped curve representing the general working population. The diagram below shows the normal bell curve divided into standard tenths ('standard tenths' is shortened to 'sten') for the Diplomatic vs. Independent Personality Scale. The diagram also shows the percentage of the general working population that will typically score in each sten.

Prevue Benchmark

The Prevue Benchmark shows the preferred characteristics of an employee for a particular position. These characteristics are displayed as a range of desired sten scores on each scale. This range is shaded and forms the benchmark for the scale. The candidate's assessment results are shown as circled numbers and compared to the shaded ranges. The Benchmark Suitability Score is derived from a formula analyzing the candidate's sten scores on the benchmark (circled score is inside the shaded range) versus those scores that are off the benchmark (circled score is outside the shaded range).

Example: The benchmark for the Diplomatic vs. Independent scale (shown above) is the shaded range of stens from 5 to 8. Scores 5,6,7 or 8 will be on the benchmark. Scores of 1,2,3,4,9 and 10 will be off the benchmark.

Part 2 - Prevue Results Graph

John Johnson's scores are shown in the circled numbers on each of the Prevue scales presented below. The Prevue Benchmark for the Customer Service Representative position is indicated by the green shaded ranges on each scale, which are preferred scores for this position. A score inside a shaded range is on the benchmark. A score outside a shaded range is off the benchmark.

Part 3 - Total Person Description

The Total Person Description provides an overview of John Johnson compared to the general working population. This profile is derived from the scores shown on the Prevue Results Graph.

Mr. John Johnson has above average numeric skills, combined with moderate verbal and spatial skills. He is well equipped for challenging numeric assignments and able to work with complex spreadsheets and data tables. His average ability with words means that common paperwork, most office duties, and written material are within his scope. Similarly, because he is reasonably proficient in tasks that require mental manipulation of shapes and objects, he will be able to follow simple diagrams, to estimate space requirements, and to read blueprints. He should not require extra instruction, guidance, or time to achieve competence in routine work. Overall, he and Mr. Johnson will perform best when the environment and work practices change slowly.

Mr. Johnson is strongly interested in people and would be most happy in a job that involves contact with others. He is moderately motivated to work with data and things. This means that he could process abstract information and use technology so long as he still had opportunities for social interaction. He would perform best where he could take advantage of his preference for interpersonal activity. In a computer context, Mr. Johnson would prefer direct communication with others via Internet connections, E-mail, and word processing.

Mr. Johnson is competitive and assertive. While he may be a strong team player, he is likely to want to lead as he enjoys individual recognition. His leadership style is marked by persuasion and encouragement, but he is unafraid of argument and sometimes is willing to take on even controversial issues. In non-threatening situations and with people he knows well, John Johnson will be outspoken and he will vigorously promote his own ideas. On occasion, Mr. Johnson will use tact and diplomacy to maintain harmony in the workplace.

John Johnson is innovative and flexible, believing that rules can be interpreted loosely. He often seeks new ways to solve problems rather than following traditional methods. Being creative and spontaneous, he prefers to react to situations as they develop rather than to make detailed plans. He sees the overall picture rather than focusing on the details, and he is more concerned with getting the job done than how he does it. His workspace is likely to be cluttered and untidy, and he would have to go against his own nature to do well in a structured organization with many rules, tight deadlines, and strict codes of behavior. Mr. Johnson enjoys change and a shifting and unpredictable environment.

John Johnson enjoys the company of other people and could be troubled by extended periods of solitude. Most people will find him to be friendly and personable. He is quick to talk to others and enjoys their attention. While he can listen effectively when concentrating, his instinct is to be the one doing the talking. His enthusiasm is a tremendous advantage when presenting ideas. Though conversational and outgoing, Mr. Johnson is also self-reliant and does not require constant social interaction. In a group setting, he will occasionally command attention but he is also comfortable as a quiet observer.

Outwardly, Mr. Johnson will appear relaxed and easygoing and seems to cope well with most of life's pressures, but he can be easily pushed from this equilibrium. He has a high degree of emotional sensitivity and, while this quality makes him aware of others' feelings and able to interpret their motives well, it also makes him more vulnerable to negative feedback. He is readily embarrassed. For the most part, however, he will be able to keep his troubles in proportion and he does not worry unduly. He can cope fairly well with a demanding job, as long as there is an opportunity to work with others whom he has grown to trust.

Part 6 - Best Practice Information

Assessment Administration: Best Human Resources practice recommends that assessments be administered to candidates in a controlled environment under the supervision of a proctor to ensure that:

- ▶ The person who completes the assessment is in fact the candidate.
- ▶ A candidate's responses to the assessment questions are not affected by collusion with others or by other actions that would invalidate the assessment.
- ▶ The supervisor is able to address unexpected conditions or problems affecting a candidate and to provide reasonable accommodation for candidates where required.

Where a candidate completes the assessments without supervision the accuracy of the results cannot be guaranteed. In such circumstances you may wish to have the candidate retake the Prevue Assessments in a controlled environment at the time they attend your offices for an interview. For more information on the administration of the Prevue Assessment, please see "Administering the Prevue Assessments" in the Prevue How To Guides posted at www.prevueonline.com.

Assessment Weighting: The weight given to the Prevue Assessments in any human resource selection or other high stakes decision should not exceed one-third of the total decision making process. The remainder of the process, including the candidate's work history, interview, background checks, etc., should be considered together with the results of this report.

Ensuring Fairness: When properly administered, the use of the Prevue Assessments will help to ensure that job applicants are treated fairly without regard to race, colour, religion, sex or national origin. The Prevue Assessments have been designed and developed to conform to the human rights legislative and best practice requirements prevailing in the various countries where the Prevue Assessments are distributed. This includes the EEOC Guidelines, the Americans With Disabilities Act, and the standards for test development published by the American Psychological Association, the British Psychological Society, and the Association of Test Publishers.
